REGIONAL MANAGING EDITOR

The El Dorado News-Times is seeking a regional managing editor to oversee daily newspaper operations in El Dorado and at our weekly Camden and Magnolia newspapers. We are looking for an experienced editor who is comfortable managing both print and digital publications. This hands-on position will guide our staff of reporters through the process of putting together a world class print and digital publication. This includes writing and editing stories and designing pages for print and digital formats. We are looking for a candidate to become a part of our community, build relationships, teach, mentor and lead our staff of reporters through the processes of producing quality community journalism. The successful candidate will be able to coordinate editorial publications and meetings, plan and approve assignments, control schedules and enforce deadlines. Critical to our success is providing a positive work environment that fosters teamwork, accountability and respect for all internal and external customers. A journalism degree or equivalent experience in a community newsroom is required. Candidate must be able to work a flexible schedule. This is a safety-sensitive position. The News-Times, a drug-free workplace, is owned by WEHCO Media, Inc., a privately held company with a vibrant future. WEHCO owns the largest newspaper in Arkansas, the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, and several other newspapers in Arkansas, Missouri and Tennessee. El Dorado is the headquarters for Fortune 500 company Murphy USA. Its downtown entertainment district, the Murphy Arts District, features a music hall, restaurant and amphitheater and a 70-bed boutique hotel, with an art gallery and renovated theater planned for downtown. We offer health, dental vision and life insurance, paid vacation and holidays and a company matched 401(k) program. The El Dorado News-Times is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or disability. Applicants should send resumes to General Manager Rita Haldeman at rhaldeman@eldoradonews.com. (5)

CONTENT SPECIALIST

The University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture is hiring a Content Specialist in Fayetteville. The Content Specialist will write stories that show the importance of agricultural and food research from the Arkansas Agricultural Experiment Station. Successful candidates should be comfortable writing for newspapers, websites and social media. We're looking for someone to participate in media relations by developing active media lists, delivering pitches to increase media placements and helping reporters find information for their stories. The Content Specialist will also help with social media management and create visual content as needed. We need a self-starter who doesn't wait on assignments. Essential skills include: Meticulous attention to detail in writing and editing. Solid news judgment. High-level writing/reporting techniques. Familiarity with AP style. Experience with DSLR photography, videography, and/or graphic design is a plus. Salary is commensurate with experience and starts at $38K. Excellent benefits through the U of A System. Close date is March 6, 2020. Visit <https://jobs.uark.edu/postings/37708> to learn more and apply. Email nkordsme@uark.edu with any questions. The U of A System Division of Agriculture offers all its Extension and Research programs and services without regard to race, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital or veteran status, genetic information, or any other legally protected status, and is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. The Madison County Record, in Huntsville, Arkansas, is looking for a full-time entry-level general assignment reporter to cover government meetings, community events, breaking news stories and Covid-19's effects on the county. The Madison County Record is an award-winning 140-year-old weekly, county newspaper located near the growing and vibrant Fayetteville and Springdale areas in beautiful Northwest Arkansas. This position is also responsible for maintaining our community calendars and using InDesign to paginate the classified and obituary sections of our paper. Preferred qualifications include a journalism degree or equivalent experience in journalism or related field, writing, editing and reporting experience, solid news judgment, as well as a natural curiosity and a passion for news and its benefits to local communities. This position is full-time, with some nights and weekends required to cover government meetings, breaking news stories or community events. Experience with photography and Adobe products is preferred. We offer some benefits, vacation pay and a flexible, caring work environment. Please email two or three writing clips and resume to ekreth@mcrecordonline.com. (1)

PUBLISHER

Emmerich Newspapers is looking for a dynamic publisher for its weekly newspaper and ground-breaking 24/7 website in Columbia, Mississippi. We are investing heavily in our proprietary, state-of-the-art local news and social media platform. We need a strong seller, leader, manager, and newshound to make it happen. We believe our digital/print hybrid model will yield significant growth. Ideal candidate knows the business from both sides of the fence, is able to drive revenue and profit, along with producing quality products – this is not a “desk job.” Solid editorial, computer, and advertising skills are major pluses. Additional talents in business, advertising, editorial, leadership, research, problem-solving, strategic planning, negotiation, customer service, management, and teamwork are all wonderful traits. If you have the drive, but may be lacking a few tools in your skill set, we do train. Publisher is also expected to be an active and integral member of the community. Medical 401(k), & other benefits. We are aggressive in compensation for the right person. Our bonus model allows high achievers to double their substantial base salary. This is a great opportunity for a high-energy individual willing to work hard and make a lot of money. REPORTER

The Madison County Record, in Huntsville, Arkansas, is looking for a full-time entry-level general assignment reporter to cover government meetings, community events, breaking news stories and Covid-19's effects on the county. The Madison County Record is an award-winning 140-year-old weekly, county newspaper located near the growing and vibrant Fayetteville and Springdale areas in beautiful Northwest Arkansas. This position is also responsible for maintaining our community calendars and using InDesign to paginate the classified and obituary sections of our paper. Preferred qualifications include a journalism degree or equivalent experience in journalism or related field, writing, editing and reporting experience, solid news judgment, as well as a natural curiosity and a passion for news and its benefits to local communities. This position is full-time, with some nights and weekends required to cover government meetings, breaking news stories or community events. Experience with photography and Adobe products is preferred. We offer some benefits, vacation pay and a flexible, caring work environment. Please email two or three writing clips and resume to ekreth@mcrecordonline.com. (6)

and ground-breaking 24/7 website in Columbia, Mississippi. We are investing heavily in our proprietary, state-of-the-art local news and social media platform. We need a strong seller, leader, manager, and newshound to make it happen. We believe our digital/print hybrid model will yield significant growth. Ideal candidate knows the business from both sides of the fence, is able to drive revenue and profit, along with producing quality products – this is not a “desk job.” Solid editorial, computer, and advertising skills are major pluses. Additional talents in business, advertising, editorial, leadership, research, problem-solving, strategic planning, negotiation, customer service, management, and teamwork are all wonderful traits. If you have the drive, but may be lacking a few tools in your skill set, we do train. Publisher is also expected to be an active and integral member of the community. Medical 401(k), & other benefits. We are aggressive in compensation for the right person. Our bonus model allows high achievers to double their substantial base salary. This is a great opportunity for a high-energy individual willing to work hard and make a lot of money. Send letter of interest, resume, and professional references to Dan W. Strack, COO, Emmerich Newspapers, at strack@emmerichnewspapers.com. (6)
